

Ceremony Music

Your ceremony music plays an important part in setting the atmosphere for your special day. The songs below are just some which I have found to be most popular and I will do my best to assist you in choosing music which both you and your guests can enjoy.

Entrance:

Bridal March (Instrumental)
Perhaps Love
This is The Moment
The First time
Songbird
Flower Duet (Female duet- soprano & alto)
Nella Fantasia (Gabriels Oboe)
She moved through the fair
I dreamed of you

Candle ceremony:

Guitar/Piano Instrumental
One Hand One Heart

Psalm:

Set Your Heart On The Higher Gifts
Here I am Lord
Song of Ruth (Wherever You Go)
On Eagles Wings

Offertory:

Ag Criost an Siol
Here I am Lord

Communion:

Ave Maria (Schubert)
Ave Maria (Bach)
Panis Angelicus
Amazing Grace
The Prayer (Solo or duet with male tenor)
Pie Jesu (also available as soprano duet)

Signing of the register:

Fields of Gold
Take Me as I am (Duet with male tenor)
Wind Beneath my Wings
Evergreen
The Rose
Songbird
Feels Like Home
To Make You Feel My Love
You Take My Breath Away
I Wish

Recessional:

The Voyage
Wedding March (Instrumental)
She moved through the fair
What a wonderful world
What a difference a day made
At last

"Music is the mediator between the spiritual and the sensual life."

Ludwig van Beethoven

NOTE:

This is the Wedding Voice recommended list of songs but of course if there's a special song that you would like to include in your ceremony I'd be glad to work with you in finalising a songlist that you're completely happy with for your special day.